TIMES SPORTS FINISH PLANS FOR

SFF WILLARD

By ED. W. SMITH.

TOLEDO, June 27.—Leo Flynn, the barnstorm king and carpetbagger of fiction, has been on the battleground for two days and has his eyes wide open. When it comes to lamping champions Leo is as good a man as there is in the world today. From morning until night Leo followed both contender and champion over their daily routine and after watching the movements of Willard and the easy manner and slip-shod way he is carrying out his training program, came to the conclusion that, for the first time in the history of pugilism, the contender.

Leo's deductions are these;

Willard is an old man, both in action and spirit. The fat which the trained eye of long experience sees in busted ball club. the fat on the inside of big Jess' ancondition.

But to a student it is plain to be seen that Jess, more than anybody else, is convinced that this will be his Judge got three and Foster, Agnew, sized, with little knowledge of the Rice. boxing game and appear at all times to be boxing under instructions.

Consider His Record. Another thing to be taken into con sideration on the Willard question in judging the outcome of the July Fourth battle, is Willard's record up to date. In the first place, like James J. Jeffries, when he boxed Jack Johnson at Reno, he has been out of the boxing game four years.

Willard has been out of boxing game since 19:5, only taking part in a ten-round no-decision contest with one of the worst contenders ever before the public, and who was later knocked out in three with this impregnable man mountain, nate And, furthermore, there is no fight in his record that would convince any one that he was a great fighter. As to the challenger:

ransom over any distance, 1 to 100 game.

Be's Like Ketchel.

Since the day that James J. Jeffries maw his best there has been no heavyweight that has compared with Dempsey. His attack is on the order W. F. HITT WATCHES BALL of the late Stanley Ketcael and he is a moving target and hard to hit. He is a terrific counter puncher and the Fourth of July will put an end to the temmyrot that any man is too big to hurt. The vital places in the anatomy Middle Atlantic Golf Tournament of a giant are the same as in a normal man, and more, there is a larger space to shoot at. Dempsey, being 200 pounds, is big enough to lick any man in the world. no matter how big. He has the punch. youth, speed, and endurance,

As to Dempsey's record it far outshines the champion, inasmuch as he has swept every rival contender from the pugilistic horizon, amongst them the best heavyweights of the day Only yesterday he knocked out a giant as big as Willard, in the person of Sergt. Bill Tate, the giant negro, who REX PLAYERS EXPECT stands six feet six.

All this coming from as well-known a boxing authority as Leo P. Flynn. who has made boxing a life study and who is one of the best judges in this country, should lend a lot of weight to those who like the chances shortly. The Rex lads need a clean-
